

Coastal Training

Celebrate & Share Local Expertise

Protecting human health Supporting vibrant economies Sustaining nature-based community services

Summer Events 2011

throughout southern Maine & coastal New Hampshire

JUNE

Solstice at the Summit, June 21

Natural Resource Outreach Leaders Meeting
atop Mt. Agamenticus

Protecting the Land that Produces our Drinking Water, June 28

Watershed Walking Tour and Workshop York and Kittery Water Districts

JULY

Maine Beaches Conference, July 15

Coastal Places, Processes, and Partnerships: Balancing values and expectations on Maine's beaches
at Southern Maine Community College

Protecting Water Quality through Stormwater Management, July 26

The Salmon Falls Watershed Collaborative hosts a guided day field trip through Maine and New Hampshire's latest Low Impact Development sites

Saco Estuary Policy, Science and Stewardship Boat Trips, July TBA

For stakeholders working on the Saco River estuary in Biddeford and Saco

AUGUST

Environmental Communication courses with Eric Eckl

Water Words That Work Introduction, August 3

at Great Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve

Water Words That Work Advanced, August 4

at the Wells Reserve

Saco Estuary Policy, Science and Stewardship Boat Trips, August TBA

For stakeholders working on the Saco River estuary in Biddeford and Saco

SEPTEMBER

Restoring Degraded Watersheds—A Road Trip to Success, September TBA

A tour of Spruce Creek's Watershed Cleanup and Shorey's Brook Dam Removal and Restoration project

The Coastal Training Program assists communities in protecting clean water, maintaining healthy ecosystems, and balancing conservation and development. Through seminars, field trips, skill-based workshops, and technical assistance, the Coastal Training Program helps support resilient coastal communities.

For more information visit our website or contact Annie Cox at acox@wellsnerr.org or (207) 646-1555 x157

wellsreserve at laudholm

Wells National Estuarine Research Reserve 342 Laudholm Farm Road, Wells, Maine wellsreserve.org 207-646-1555