

The Wells Reserve at Laudholm

Protecting special places through community partnerships eco-sports day + laudholm 5K encouraging an active lifestyle

sun 26 sep 2010 ≈ 10 - 3 ≈ rain or shine

Exhibit, sell, and demonstrate at the event...

- Table space, miles of trails, expansive lawn, access to river and surf
- Associate your business with quality of life, environmental leadership, and historic preservation
- Powerful promotional opportunity

What makes the Wells Reserve special?

- 2,250 acres of protected coastal habitat — a National Estuarine Research Reserve
- Main campus — Laudholm Farm — on National Register of Historic Places
- World-class research on critical coastal issues
- Hands-on environmental learning
- Regional center focused on protecting our children's water

How to get involved as a vendor...

- Spaces are $150
- Outdoor and indoor spaces available
- Includes electricity
- Your business listed on fliers and event programs
- Promoted online and through traditional media

Your participation will help us strengthen the Wells Reserve at Laudholm as a regional center for coastal science and environmental learning.

Call Diana Joyner at 207-646-1555 ext 144.

(Ask about the benefits available to sponsors of this event.)

laudholmtrust
In support of Wells Reserve