Wells National Estuarine Research Reserve

Research • Education • Stewardship

Revised: August 1, 2019

The Alheim Commons is the 20-bed housing facility of the Wells National Estuarine Research Reserve. It is to be used for individuals and groups involved in mission-related activities of the Wells Reserve and Laudholm Trust. Environmental educators, scientists, natural resource management professionals, interns, and graduate students working directly with the Wells Reserve during the busy program and field season (mid-May through September) may be provided accommodations in the Alheim Commons as part of their compensation. Other groups and individuals working directly with the Reserve and the Trust on special programs or fundraising-related projects may be provided accommodations as part of their compensation. The following rates apply effective November 1, 2019:

Individual rates:

- $450 per month
- $175 per week
- $45 per night

Group rates (four or more persons from the same organization or project):

- $400 per person per month
- $160 per person per week
- $30 per person per night

*Private rooms may be reserved at an increased rate of 20% over the base rate noted above, and subject to availability
