

Teachers on the Estuary

A program supported by the National Estuarine Research Reserve System Science Collaborative

- 💧 A field and research-based course for teachers
  - 💧 Hosted by the Wells National Estuarine Research Reserve, Maine
  - 💧 July 22nd -25th, 2013, plus a follow-up session in October or November
- 💧 Investigate ecosystem services
  - 💧 Try out Estuaries 101, a new online curriculum
  - 💧 Explore systems thinking and service learning
  - 💧 Discover how to facilitate climate change role play activities

estuaries & watersheds

- 💧 Free 4-day workshop limited to 10 participants
- 💧 Lodging (if needed) and most meals will be provided
- 💧 Teachers receive a stewardship project mini-grant of $200
- 💧 2 graduate credits available via Framingham State University, (additional fee of $150) or 33 Professional Development Points
- 💧 Geared for middle and high school science teachers, though others are welcome to apply

wellsreserve
at laudholm
Wells National Estuarine Research Reserve

An application is required. For more information go to www.wellsreserve.org or www.estuaries.noaa.gov or call Suzanne Eder at (207) 646 -1555 x 116