

Beginning with HABITAT

Map Prepared by Maine Department of Inland Fisheries & Wildlife
March 16, 2010
Jason Czajiga, Cartographer

0 0.125 0.25 0.5 Mile
0 0.125 0.25 0.5 Kilometer

Universal Transverse Mercator (UTM) Projection
North American Datum (NAD) 1983 1:16,000

- Conservation Focus Areas
- Core Areas
  - Supporting Landscape
  - Major Roads
  - Streams
  - Piscataqua River Watershed Boundary
  - Town Boundaries
  - Conservation Lands

KNIGHTS POND
TOWNS: Berwick, South Berwick
WATERSHED: Hildo Brook, Lover’s Brook, Great Works River
	CORE AREA	SUPPORTING LANDSCAPE
SIZE	114 acres	337 acres
SIGNIFICANT ECOLOGICAL RESOURCES
Forest Ecosystem
Area w/in undeveloped habitat block	111 acres	150 acres
Area w/in unfragmented forest block	n/a	n/a
Freshwater Systems
Undeveloped stream reaches	3	2
River & stream miles	1 mile	0.4 miles
Significant Wildlife Habitat
Inland wadingbird and waterfowl habitat	3 mapped totaling 35 acres	57 additional acres within SUPPORTING LANDSCAPE
Tidal wadingbird waterfowl habitat	n/a	n/a
Deer wintering area	none mapped	none mapped
Significant vernal pool	none mapped	none mapped
Shorebird feeding / roosting area	n/a	n/a
Significant Plant &amp; Animal Occurrences
Rare plant populations	Swamp Saxifrage
Rare animal populations	Spotted Turtle
Rare natural communities
Exemplary natural communities and ecosystems
Water Supply
High yield aquifer	Mapped sand a water aquifer at northern edge of CFA
Wellheads and wellhead protection zones	One public water supply well mapped along southern edge of CFA
CURRENT CONSERVATION STATUS
Permanently Protected, Managed as natural area or ecological reserve (GAP 1 & 2)	0 acres	111 acres (correct figure?)
Permanently Protected, Managed primarily as working forest (GAP 3)
Not permanently protected, but in public or institutional ownership (GAP 3a)
RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER PLANS
Area identified in other planning initiatives		